

Oakland Dog Training Club

Proudly Presents

Diane Bauman Obedience Seminar

World-Renowned Canine Expert,
Teacher and Trainer

Training the Thinking Dog and
The Gap between Training & Trial Performances

Feb 9 - 10, 2019

Seminar will be held at FetchSam,
342 Race Street San Jose CA.
9-5 Saturday, 9-4 Sunday PST

Registration Fee: $260 for both days.
Diane welcomes everyone attending to bring their dog.
Fee includes lunch, snacks, beverages both days.
On Saturday after dinner, we will meet again for an informal gathering to ask questions, etc. Details provided a few weeks prior to the seminar.

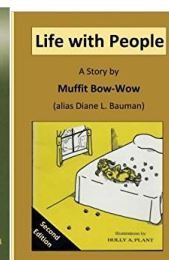

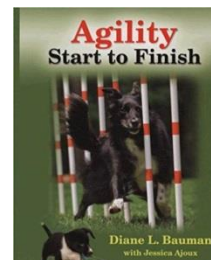

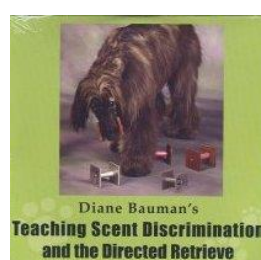

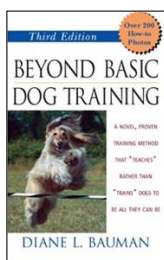

All levels of obedience will be covered. Topics will include:

- How to view training from the dog's perspective
- How to train for understanding, not patterning
- Building a strong training relationship through communication
- Understanding "help" vs "correction"
- Special small dog techniques

Seminar format is lecture, demonstration, and some audience participation. There will be opportunities to work with dogs on problem-solving and mastering new skills. Dogs will be worked, but not every dog will do every exercise.

One of the most successful professionals in the field of canine agility and obedience, Diane Bauman uses her talent & innate sensitivity for understanding how dogs think and how people learn. Teaching the handler and dog to THINK is foremost in her teaching skills. She has instructed hundreds of successful students, many of whom have gone on to become famous competitors and trainers in the world of canine competition. Diane has put obedience, tracking, and herding titles on a wide variety of breeds. Her record includes 16 perfect 200 scores earned on 4 different breeds and 4 OTCHs (Golden Retriever, Keeshond, Pekingese, and Pomeranian). In addition to competing & teaching, Diane has devoted countless hours to rehabilitating & training hundreds of rescued dogs throughout the years.

Diane lives on a 32-acre farm "Flying Ewe Ranch" where she owns and operates the training facility "Dawgdome South" located in East Tennessee. Diane is the author of numerous publications, training manuals and books on the topics of obedience, tracking and agility. For more information on Diane, please visit <http://dianebauman.com>
